(If you can, please request a delivery receipt and a read receipt when you communicate with me by emails. Please send the decision to these 3 email addresses. The decision to my last request for interim measures (your reference : 50552/22 V.L.C. c. France) was supposedly notified to me by email and regular mail, but I never received the email. I would receive the Court's decision by the regular mail almost 3 months later on February 16, 2023. Thank you.)

- (1) Dear Honorable Judges of the European Court of Human Rights,
- (2) I request the permission to file my application, including the request for interim measures and any subsequent legal proceedings, in the English language. This request is predicated on specific considerations pertinent to the case at hand.
- (3) In compliance with [REDACTED] I am asking the Court to keep this request for interim measures and related documents off public record.
- (4) But in the event harm were to come to me and/or my in-laws in China or my family in France, I am asking the Court to release this request for interim measures and all associated document and to make them available to the general public and the press.
- (5) I am asking the Court to also notify [REDACTED]

(19) This request for interim measures doesn't have any requests yet. I am first going to submit this document to which I attach the brief explanation I sent to [REDACTED]

(20) Only then, I am going to send you a more complete, but unfinished, draft of the request for interim measures I initially intended to submit. It's unfinished. But there are already 36 pages and many points are relatively well explained.

(21) I apologize for the length of the document. Blame France for systematically preventing me a normal access to the judicial system.

(22) Vincent B. Le Corre, Taiyuan, Shanxi, China, December 15, 2023
